

Parenting Experience Workshop

We all know parenting can be challenging! Sometimes you're swimming along, winning at everything! Other times you can barely keep your head above water...

We would like to facilitate a workshop in your community to share your successes and challenges, while hearing from other parents what has (and has not) worked for them. We can bring information from a variety of resources, including Active Parenting, Triple P (Positive Parenting Practices), Growing Great Kids, Parents as Teachers, Positive Discipline, and our own personal experiences.

Call, text, or email to let us know if you are interested in hearing more.
